COMPLAINT – CLASS ACTION

MATTERS COMMON TO MULTIPLE COUNTS

INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiffs Budd Engineering Corporation and Richard Wade Architects, P.C. brings this action to secure redress for the actions of defendant Bildau and Bussman North America GmbH in sending or causing the sending of unsolicited advertisements to telephone facsimile machines in violation of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. §227 (“TCPA”), the Illinois Consumer Fraud Act, 815 ILCS 505/2 (“ICFA”), and the common law.

2. The TCPA expressly prohibits unsolicited fax advertising. Unsolicited fax advertising damages the recipients. The recipient is deprived of its paper and ink or toner and the use of its fax machine. The recipient also wastes valuable time it would have spent on something else. Unsolicited faxes prevent fax machines from receiving and sending authorized faxes, cause wear and tear on fax machines, and require labor to attempt to identify the source and purpose of the unsolicited faxes.

PARTIES

3. Plaintiff Budd Engineering Corporation is an Illinois corporation with offices at 7605 N. Tripp Avenue, Skokie, Illinois 60076, where it maintains telephone facsimile equipment.

4. Plaintiff Richard Wade Architects, P.C, is an Illinois professional corporation with offices in Frankfort, Illinois, where it maintains telephone facsimile equipment.

5. Defendant Bildau and Bussman North America GmbH is a corporation chartered under German law. Its principal office is located at Lehrterstrasse 24-25, DE 10557, Berlin, Germany. It does business in the United States and may be served at 2822 54th Avenue South, #105, St. Petersburg, FL 33712, or through its agent Architectural Windows & Entries, Inc., 2822 54th Avenue South, #237, St. Petersburg, FL 33712.

6. Defendants John Does 1-10 are other natural or artificial persons that were involved in the sending of the facsimile advertisements described below. Plaintiffs do not know who they are.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7. This Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§1331 and 1367. Brill v. Countrywide Home Loans, Inc., 427 F.3d 446 (7th Cir. 2005).

8. This Court also has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§1332(d) (Class Action Fairness Act). Defendant is of diverse citizenship to at least one class member. On information and belief, based on the economics of junk faxing, the number of class members exceeds 100. On information and belief, based on the economics of junk faxing and the apparent target audience of the faxes, the total amount in controversy, on a classwide basis, exceeds $5 million. (At $1500 per fax, this is satisfied if more than 3,334 faxes were sent; since at the typical rates charged for fax advertising, this would only cost $50 to $100, it makes little or no sense to send fewer faxes.)

9. Personal jurisdiction exists under 735 ILCS 5/2-209, in that defendants:
- a. Have committed tortious acts in Illinois by causing the transmission of unlawful communications into the state.
 - b. Have transacted business in Illinois.

10. Venue in this District is proper for the same reason.

FACTS

11. On April 27, 2010, plaintiff Budd Engineering Corporation received the unsolicited fax advertisement attached as Exhibit A on its facsimile machine.

12. On February 16, 2011, plaintiff Budd Engineering Corporation and Richard Wade Architects, P.C. received the unsolicited fax advertisement attached as Exhibit B on its facsimile machine.

13. On April 30, 2010, plaintiff Richard Wade Architects, P.C. received the unsolicited fax advertisement attached as Exhibit C on its facsimile machine.

14. On May 25, 2010, plaintiff Richard Wade Architects, P.C. received the unsolicited fax advertisement attached as Exhibit D on its facsimile machine.

15. On August 9, 2010, plaintiff Richard Wade Architects, P.C. received the unsolicited fax advertisement attached as Exhibit E on its facsimile machine.

16. On August 22, 2010, plaintiff Richard Wade Architects, P.C. received the unsolicited fax advertisement attached as Exhibit F on its facsimile machine.

17. On February 16, 2011, plaintiff Richard Wade Architects, P.C. received the unsolicited fax advertisement attached as Exhibit G on its facsimile machine.

18. On April 4, 2012, plaintiff Richard Wade Architects, P.C. received the unsolicited fax advertisement attached as Exhibit H on its facsimile machine.

19. Discovery may reveal the transmission of additional faxes as well.

20. Defendant Bildau and Bussman North America GmbH is responsible for sending or causing the sending of the faxes.

21. Defendant Bildau and Bussman North America GmbH, as the entity whose products or services were advertised in the faxes, derived economic benefit from the sending of the faxes.

22. The faxes do not contain an “opt out notice” such as is described in 47

U.S.C. §227.

23. Defendant Bildau and Bussman North America GmbH either negligently or wilfully violated the rights of plaintiffs and other recipients in sending the faxes.

24. Plaintiffs had no prior relationship with defendant and had not authorized the sending of fax advertisements to plaintiffs.

25. On information and belief, the faxes attached hereto were sent as part of a mass broadcasting of faxes.

26. On information and belief, defendants have transmitted similar unsolicited fax advertisements to at least 40 other persons in Illinois.

27. There is no reasonable means for plaintiffs or other recipients of defendants' unsolicited advertising faxes to avoid receiving illegal faxes. Fax machines must be left on and ready to receive the urgent communications authorized by their owners.

COUNT I – TCPA

28. Plaintiffs incorporate ¶¶ 1-27.

29. The TCPA makes unlawful the “use of any telephone facsimile machine, computer or other device to send an unsolicited advertisement to a telephone facsimile machine ...” 47 U.S.C. §227(b)(1)(C).

30. The TCPA, 47 U.S.C. §227(b)(3), provides:

Private right of action.

A person or entity may, if otherwise permitted by the laws or rules of court of a State, bring in an appropriate court of that State—

(A) an action based on a violation of this subsection or the regulations prescribed under this subsection to enjoin such violation,

(B) an action to recover for actual monetary loss from such a violation, or to receive $500 in damages for each such violation, whichever is greater, or

(C) both such actions.

If the Court finds that the defendant willfully or knowingly violated this subsection or the regulations prescribed under this subsection, the court may, in its discretion, increase the amount of the award to an amount equal to not more than 3 times the amount available under the subparagraph (B) of this paragraph.

31. Plaintiff and each class member suffered damages as a result of receipt of the unsolicited faxes, in the form of paper and ink or toner consumed as a result. Furthermore, plaintiff's statutory right of privacy was invaded.

32. Plaintiff and each class member is entitled to statutory damages.

33. Defendants violated the TCPA even if their actions were only negligent.

34. Defendants should be enjoined from committing similar violations in the future.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

35. Pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 23(a) and (b)(3), plaintiff Budd Engineering Corporation brings this claim on behalf of a class, consisting of (a) all persons and entities with fax numbers (b) who, on or after a date four years prior to the filing of this action (28 U.S.C. §1658), or such shorter period during which faxes were sent by or on behalf of defendant Bildau and Bussman North America GmbH, and on or before a date 20 days following the filing of this action, (c) were sent faxes by or on behalf of defendant Bildau and Bussman North America GmbH promoting its goods or services for sale (d) which do not contain an opt out notice as described in 47 U.S.C. §227.

36. The class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impractical. Plaintiffs allege on information and belief that there are more than 40 members of the class.

37. There are questions of law and fact common to the class that predominate over any questions affecting only individual class members. The predominant common questions include:

- a. Whether defendants engaged in a pattern of sending unsolicited fax advertisements;
- b. The manner in which defendants compiled or obtained their list of fax numbers;

- c. Whether defendants thereby violated the TCPA;
- d. Whether defendants thereby engaged in unfair acts and practices, in violation of the ICFA.
- e. Whether defendants thereby converted the property of plaintiff.

38. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.

Plaintiffs have retained counsel experienced in handling class actions and claims involving unlawful business practices. Neither plaintiffs nor plaintiffs' counsel have any interests which might cause them not to vigorously pursue this action.

39. Plaintiffs' claims are typical of the claims of the class members. All are based on the same factual and legal theories.

40. A class action is the superior method for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. The interest of class members in individually controlling the prosecution of separate claims against defendants is small because it is not economically feasible to bring individual actions.

41. Several courts have certified class actions under the TCPA. Travel 100 Group, Inc. v. Empire Cooler Service, Inc., 03 CH 14510 (Cook Co. Cir. Ct., Oct. 19, 2004); Rawson v. C.P. Partners LLC, 03 CH 14510 (Cook Co. Cir. Ct., Sept. 30, 2005); ESI Ergonomic Solutions, LLC v. United Artists Theatre Circuit, Inc., 50 P.3d 844 (Ariz. App. 2002); Core Funding Group, LLC v. Young, 792 N.E.2d 547 (Ind.App. 2003); Nicholson v. Hooters of Augusta, Inc., 245 Ga.App. 363, 537 S.E.2d 468 (2000) (private class actions); see State of Texas v. American Blast Fax, Inc., 164 F. Supp. 2d 892 (W.D. Tex. 2001) (state enforcement action).

42. Management of this class action is likely to present significantly fewer difficulties than those presented in many class actions, e.g. for securities fraud.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs request that the Court enter judgment in favor of plaintiffs and the class and against defendants for:

- a. Actual damages;
- b. Statutory damages;
- c. An injunction against the further transmission of unsolicited fax advertising;
- d. Costs of suit;
- e. Such other or further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

COUNT II – ILLINOIS CONSUMER FRAUD ACT

- 43. Plaintiffs incorporate ¶¶ 1-27.
- 44. Defendants engaged in unfair acts and practices, in violation of ICFA § 2, 815 ILCS 505/2, by sending unsolicited fax advertising to plaintiff and others.
- 45. Unsolicited fax advertising is contrary to the TCPA and also Illinois law. 720 ILCS 5/26-3(b) makes it a petty offense to transmit unsolicited fax advertisements to Illinois residents.
- 46. Defendants engaged in an unfair practice by engaging in conduct that is contrary to public policy, unscrupulous, and caused injury to recipients of their advertising.
- 47. Plaintiff and each class member suffered damages as a result of receipt of the unsolicited faxes, in the form of paper and ink or toner consumed as a result.
- 48. Defendants engaged in such conduct in the course of trade and commerce.
- 49. Defendants' conduct caused recipients of their advertising to bear the cost thereof. This gave defendants an unfair competitive advantage over businesses that advertise lawfully, such as by direct mail. For example, an advertising campaign targeting one million recipients would cost $500,000 if sent by U.S. mail but only $20,000 if done by fax broadcasting. The reason is that instead of spending $480,000 on printing and mailing his ad, the fax broadcaster misappropriates the recipients' paper and ink. "Receiving a junk fax is like getting junk mail with the postage due". Remarks of Cong. Edward Markey, 135 Cong Rec E 2549,

Tuesday, July 18, 1989, 101st Cong. 1st Sess.

50. Defendants' shifting of advertising costs to plaintiffs and the class members in this manner makes such practice unfair. In addition, defendants' conduct was contrary to public policy, as established by the TCPA and Illinois statutory and common law.

51. Defendants should be enjoined from committing similar violations in the future.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

52. Pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 23(a) and (b)(3), plaintiff Budd Engineering Corporation brings this claim on behalf of a class, consisting of (a) all persons and entities with Illinois fax numbers (b) who, on or after a date three years prior to the filing of this action, or such shorter period during which faxes were sent by or on behalf of defendant Bildau and Bussman North America GmbH, and on or before a date 20 days following the filing of this action, (c) were sent faxes by or on behalf of defendant Bildau and Bussman North America GmbH promoting its goods or services for sale (d) which do not contain an opt out notice as described in 47 U.S.C. §227.

53. The class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impractical. Plaintiffs allege on information and belief that there are more than 40 members of the class.

54. There are questions of law and fact common to the class that predominate over any questions affecting only individual class members. The predominant common questions include:

- a. Whether defendants engaged in a pattern of sending unsolicited fax advertisements;
- b. Whether defendants thereby violated the TCPA;
- c. Whether defendants thereby engaged in unfair acts and practices, in violation of the ICFA.
- d. Whether defendants thereby converted the property of plaintiff.

55. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class. Plaintiffs have retained counsel experienced in handling class actions and claims involving unlawful business practices. Neither plaintiffs nor plaintiffs' counsel have any interests which might cause them not to vigorously pursue this action.

56. Plaintiffs' claims are typical of the claims of the class members. All are based on the same factual and legal theories.

57. A class action is the superior method for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. The interest of class members in individually controlling the prosecution of separate claims against defendants is small because it is not economically feasible to bring individual actions.

58. Management of this class action is likely to present significantly fewer difficulties than those presented in many class actions, e.g. for securities fraud.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs request that the Court enter judgment in favor of plaintiffs and the class and against defendants for:

- a. Appropriate damages;
- b. An injunction against the further transmission of unsolicited fax advertising;
- c. Attorney's fees, litigation expenses and costs of suit;
- d. Such other or further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

COUNT III – CONVERSION

59. Plaintiffs incorporate ¶¶ 1-27.

60. By sending plaintiffs and the class members unsolicited faxes, defendants converted to their own use ink or toner and paper belonging to plaintiffs and the class members.

61. Immediately prior to the sending of the unsolicited faxes, plaintiffs and the class members owned and had an unqualified and immediate right to the possession of the paper and ink or toner used to print the faxes.

62. By sending the unsolicited faxes, defendants appropriated to their own use the paper and ink or toner used to print the faxes and used them in such manner as to make them unusable. Such appropriation was wrongful and without authorization.

63. Defendants knew or should have known that such appropriation of the paper and ink or toner was wrongful and without authorization.

64. Plaintiffs and the class members were deprived of the paper and ink or toner, which could no longer be used for any other purpose. Plaintiffs and each class member thereby suffered damages as a result of receipt of the unsolicited faxes.

65. Defendants should be enjoined from committing similar violations in the future.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

66. Pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 23(a) and (b)(3), plaintiff Budd Engineering Corporation brings this claim on behalf of a class, consisting of (a) all persons and entities with Illinois fax numbers (b) who, on or after a date five years prior to the filing of this action, or such shorter period during which faxes were sent by or on behalf of defendant Bildau and Bussman North America GmbH, and on or before a date 20 days following the filing of this action, (c) were sent faxes by or on behalf of defendant Bildau and Bussman North America GmbH promoting its goods or services for sale (d) which do not contain an opt out notice as described in 47 U.S.C. §227.

67. The class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impractical. Plaintiffs allege on information and belief that there are more than 40 members of the class.

68. There are questions of law and fact common to the class that predominate over any questions affecting only individual class members. The predominant common questions include:

a. Whether defendants engaged in a pattern of sending unsolicited fax advertisements;

- b. Whether defendants thereby violated the TCPA;
- c. Whether defendants thereby committed the tort of conversion;
- d. Whether defendants thereby engaged in unfair acts and practices, in violation of the ICFA.

- e. Whether defendants thereby converted the property of plaintiff.

69. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class. Plaintiffs have retained counsel experienced in handling class actions and claims involving unlawful business practices. Neither plaintiffs nor plaintiffs' counsel have any interests which might cause them not to vigorously pursue this action.

70. Plaintiffs' claims are typical of the claims of the class members. All are based on the same factual and legal theories.

71. A class action is the superior method for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. The interest of class members in individually controlling the prosecution of separate claims against defendants is small because it is not economically feasible to bring individual actions.

72. Management of this class action is likely to present significantly fewer difficulties than those presented in many class actions, e.g. for securities fraud.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs request that the Court enter judgment in favor of plaintiffs and the class and against defendants for:

- a. Appropriate damages;
- b. An injunction against the further transmission of unsolicited fax advertising;
- c. Costs of suit;
- d. Such other or further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
